Rebuilding Together Montgomery County Welcomes New Board Member

Representative from Oculus Realty joins RTMC Board of Directors

KENSINGTON, MD (March 24, 2011) – Rebuilding Together Montgomery County is pleased to announce the arrival of David Meit, a new addition to their Board of Directors for a 3 year term beginning in 2011 and lasting through 2013.

K. David Meit, CPM® is the President & CEO of Oculus Realty, LLC. He has over 20 years of experience in the real estate world and has held management and executive positions at Bozzuto Management, Forest City Residential, DARO Realty and Vornado/Charles E. Smith before founding Oculus Realty. His array of experiences in real estate and community involvement in Montgomery County makes him a wonderful asset to the RTMC board.

Meit has been involved with Rebuilding Together for many years as a volunteer and as a committee member. “RTMC’s work affects so many people who might otherwise live in a home that is in disrepair, inaccessible or unsafe. It has been my honor to work with the tireless volunteers capable and caring professional staff at RTMC for many years. I look forward to continue serving the organization and its clients as a board member,” remarked David Meit.

Executive Director Susan Hawfield is excited to have David Meit join the Board of Directors. She says, “Rebuilding Together is pleased to have David Meit join our board. As a past Rebuilding Together project volunteer leader, he is bringing his passion for the execution of our mission. Both his career and board experience brings a wealth of technical expertise to Rebuilding Together. We look forward to David’s guidance”.
